Woodlands is thought to have been built c1815 making it one of Torquay's earliest villas and during the late 1980's it was successfully converted to form just five unique residences. This spacious ground floor apartment enjoys some of the principal rooms of the villa where the high ceilings, original cornicing and window shutters have been sensitively preserved. These period features are now enhanced with some contemporary elements to provide a stylish, comfortable home for a relaxed lifestyle, or offering ideal space for second home living.

LOCATION

Located off Babbacombe Road, Woodlands falls within the Warberries Conservation Area where fine period architecture is still very much in evidence.

This sought after location is within walking distance of the marina, waterfront and town with local shops for everyday needs at nearby Lisburne Square and the village style community at Wellswood.

Torwood Gardens is also close by and was one of the first parks in Torquay provided for public use. Local buses run on the Babbacombe Road including the iconic open top bus.

INTERIOR

Inset within an arched entrance the panel glazed front door has a Georgian style fanlight above and opens to a welcoming entrance hall. To the left side the sitting/dining room is of generous proportions with large French windows framing the views over the terrace to the gardens beyond and where heritage details combined with modern design elements leave a lasting impression.

The traditional marble fireplace has a period style gas fire which is set between full length niches giving a nice sense of symmetry and providing ideal spaces for display.

This spacious room has a natural area for comfortable furniture to be placed in front of the fire and to also take advantage of the views over the garden whilst still allowing ample room for a formal dining table and chairs.

Returning to the hallway two archways lead into the kitchen/breakfast room. This room has been skilfully fitted with glossy cabinetry forming seamless clean lines and there are contrasting black countertops which together with the ceiling beams create an appealing design statement. A small breakfast bar has been fitted to provide the perfect place for casual dining and there is a good range of AEG integrated appliances, including a wine fridge with space for an American style fridge/freezer and tumble dryer.

VIEWING BY APPOINTMENT ONLY

A large picture window gives natural daylight and a glazed door opens to the rear courtyard giving access to the communal cellar.

The principal bedroom is a well-proportioned room with period features, where French doors provide swathes of natural daylight and open directly to the garden terrace giving the ambiance of a peaceful retreat. There is a natural space for a range of wardrobes and additional room for chairs and dressing table. The en-suite shower room has been well fitted providing a corner shower, a wide wash basin set into a storage cabinet and WC.

Returning to the hallway where there are two large storage cupboards, bedroom two can be found to the left side. This is a very comfortable double bedroom which has a two deep-set window overlooking the courtyard area and provides a superb guest facility. The family bathroom has a large walk-in shower, WC, pedestal basin and free-standing roll-top bath with high level opening windows for natural light and ventilation.

OUTSIDE

From the road the driveway leads to the house passing a small mews development and continuing onto the house where parking is available. The south-facing paved terrace is accessed through French doors from either the sitting room or principal bedroom and has attractive stone balustrading with a wrought-iron gate leading back to the driveway. The terrace is very private and being south facing it enjoys a good deal of available sunshine making it ideal for relaxation or dining al-fresco.

From the terrace there are views over the communal gardens which are for the exclusive use of the residents and have many mature trees and shrubs with a Cedar of Lebanon forming a magnificent centrepiece within the lawned area.

The apartment comes with allocated cellar storage accessed from the communal courtyard.
