LOCATION

Courtholme is privately set in the Lincombes Conservation area which is sought after for its quiet ambiance and fine period buildings. This location is within easy reach of the harbourside and facilities of the town with a local bus available very nearby.

The beaches at Meadfoot and Anstey's Cove with their waterside cafes are also close at hand and can be accessed by way of a series of footpaths and woodland walks. The nearby village style community of Wellwood provides good local amenities including a parish church, pub, shops, salons, convenience stores, delicatessen, post office, pharmacy, shops, restaurant and cafes. On the edge of town Torbay Hospital can be found alongside several out of town shopping areas where many popular high-street shops, supermarkets and DIY stores are available.

INTERIOR

The front door opens to an entrance vestibule which has two windows that look onto the courtyard and where there is space for coats and boots. Six steps descend to the hallway from where the accommodation unfolds over one level and immediately ahead is a rather wonderful, curved wall which is a fascinating retained architectural feature.

Immediately to the right side of the hallway is the kitchen which has been comprehensively fitted with a range of light oak style wall and base units incorporating a range of integrated appliances. A large built-in cupboard provides some additional storage and houses the gas fired boiler and hot water tank. The sink is set into a smart countertop with a high-level window above the sink and a large window to the side aspect providing good natural light.

Returning to the hallway a door opens to the reception room which is a well-proportioned room that provides space for relaxation and for dining. A period style fireplace creates a cosy focal point whilst the large multi-paned sash window frames the leafy garden views.

VIEWING BY APPOINTMENT ONLY

From the rear a door opens to the inner hall leading to the bedroom accommodation. The principal bedroom is very spacious with a prominent window flooding the room with daylight and where there is space for a large bed and for free-standing wardrobes and ancillary bedroom furniture.

Bedroom two is also a double bedroom with a multi-paned bay window giving views to the front aspect. The adjacent family bathroom has been smartly fitted incorporating a bath with an electric shower over, WC and pedestal handbasin.

OUTSIDE

Courtholme is accessed across the courtyard style garden from where captivating southerly views across the surrounding hillsides towards the sea can be enjoyed. This delightful garden is ideal for container style gardening and there is a raised deck adjacent to the boundary wall which curves around to create a partially enclosed and very sheltered spot which is ideal for relaxing in sun loungers whilst enjoying any available sunshine and the wonderful views.

AREA

Located within a large, sheltered bay on the South Devon Coast, Torquay sits at the heart of the English Riviera where the stunning coastline is dotted with sandy beaches and coastal footpaths lead to hidden coves. From the harbour area the level seafront esplanade flows past the marina and around the bay where restaurants and bars dot the waterfront offering the opportunity to enjoy some fine local seafood. Once the sun sets, the enticing waterfront illuminations, al fresco dining, live music and theatre bring the harbour area alive.

Torquay offers a range of activities and year round events and is also blessed with a choice of land and water based sporting opportunities. The town has a good range of shops and galleries with further facilities located at two out of town shopping parks.
